

KICKING OFF 2010

Calling all you learners, we want you to use your knowledge and imagination! Celebrate biodiversity by showing us your talent. Create an artwork showing a truly South African WILDLIFE animal playing soccer, and tell us WHY your animal is the best ballplayer!

1 Know your South African National Parks

2 Know your biodiversity and South African Wildlife

3 Know your Soccer

How to enter

Using crayons, coloured pencils, paint or whatever you like, draw a WILDLIFE animal playing soccer. The drawing must be done on an A4 page (210mm wide by 297mm long). Send your drawing, along with the filled out entry form, to the following address: Morula Kids Competition, SANParks, PO Box 787, Pretoria, 0001

The winner will receive these cool prizes:

- A cellphone from Nashua Mobile with airtime.
- Your own cover picture on GO WILD magazine and many more pictures of you and your friends in the national park
- A trip to the nearest national park with 4 of your friends accompanied by your school teacher.
This trip includes:
 - a two night stay at one of our wonderful national parks (including breakfast, lunch and dinner).
 - a guided educational tour of the park with a ranger
 - a game drive
 - access to information about SANParks kids programmes
- Kudzuzelas for you and your friends.
- Plus other amazing prizes.

Competition Rules

- The competition is open to all Grade 3 to 7 South African learners.
- The school may submit as many entries as possible, but only ONE submission per learner is allowed.
- All areas on the entry form must be completed.
- The entry form must bear the school's stamp.
- All submissions will become the property of South African National Parks and may be used for exhibition and/or print purposes.
- The prize is not transferable and can not be converted into cash.
- The judges' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Employees of SANParks and their families may not enter.
- The competition closes on 31st May 2010 (No late entries will be accepted)
- The winner will be notified telephonically.
